

The Learning Resource Center (LRC) is a program that provides specially designed instruction to students whose skill level prevents them from being successful in the regular classroom. All schools have an LRC. Instruction is provided in small groups or individually. This instruction may be provided on an "in class" or "pull out" basis. The specially designed instruction is provided by certified staff and instructional assistants under the supervision of the LRC teachers.